The draft stories will be sent out to the reviewer committee by mid-December. The book is planned for a 2013 release.

Advocacy Conference

Funding has been secured for a 2013 advocacy conference to be held at the Center for Injury Research and Policy in the spring. The following were raised as potential topics/speakers to be featured at the training:

- Basics of policy making.
- Inviting people with a background in advocacy.
- Different roles for public/non-profit/private institutions.
- Differences between lobbying, advocacy and education.
- CDC Lobbying restrictions.
- State vs. local focus on advocacy.
- Role playing work shops
- Featuring a lobbyist, staff member and/or legislator.
- Highlighting advocacy success stories.

The following members agreed to serve on the conference planning committee:

- Sara M.
- Nichole H.
- Denise F.
- Jaime W.
- Lisa P.
- Vince C.

Planning will begin with a conference call after the New Year.

Next Meeting
