

National Farm to School Month

Farm to School programs are now at an all-time high, with programs in all 50 states. In November 2010, Congress approved a resolution designating October as National Farm to School Month, which emphasized the importance of increasing access for children to nutritious food and supporting local agriculture and economies.

Click below to find out more about Farm to School Month in Ohio and to discover ways to participate:

<http://farmtoschool.osu.edu/>

<http://cuyahoga.osu.edu/folder-for-links-to-announcements-events-and-news/Farm%20to%20School%20Flyer%2009-2011.pdf>

