

Inpatient Patient Disposition

Description:	Patient's anticipated location or status following inpatient visit.
Allowable Values:	10, 20, 30, 40, 50, 60, 70, 80, 90, 100, 110, 120, 130, 140, 150, 888, 999
Codes:	10 Discharged to home or self-care (routine discharge) 20 Transferred/discharged to another short-term general hospital 30 Transferred/discharged to skilled nursing facility 40 Transferred/discharged to intermediate care facility 50 Transferred/discharged to another type of institution 60 Transferred/discharged to home under care of a home IV drug therapy provider 70 Transferred/discharged to home under care of certified home care provider/program 80 Left without receiving medical advice against leaving (includes left without being seen, eloped) 90 Left after receiving medical advice against leaving (i.e. left AMA) 100 Placed in designated observation unit (not considered an inpatient hospital admission) 110 Admitted to hospital floor bed 120 Admitted to intermediate care/telemetry unit 130 Admitted to intensive care unit 140 Admitted to operating room 150 Died

888 Other

999 Unknown

Length: 3

Format: IS-coded value for user-defined tables

Notes: Uniform Bill -92 and E1744-95.

Standard: Data Elements for Emergency
Department Systems